

Dean makes the scene: Friends of the Library fundraiser set

The Friends of the Duxbury Free Library announces the date of their next gala, "A Night at the Sands," on Saturday, March 28, at The Library Lounge. The evening will be an elegant celebration of the 1950's evoking the style of icons such as Dean Martin and Grace Kelly. The evening begins at 6:30 p.m....will YOU make the scene along with Dean? Save the date and watch for Dean as he travels around Duxbury to check on the details for this great night. His first visit was with the library staff to get advice on some cool books from the 50's! Where will Dean show up next? Stay tuned...
